

Native wildflower planting in Fitzalan Wood, Station Rd., Chipping Norton

Date	Common name	Botanical name	Planted/ quantity	Flowering (approx.)	Colour	Where	Notes
Nov 2019	English or Common bluebell	Hyacinthoides (or Scilla) non-scripta	200 bulbs	Apr-May	Blue	glade/nr. entrance	(rarely) pink, white
Nov 2019	Winter Aconite	Eranthis hyemalis	50 bulbs	Jan-Mar	Yellow	below entrance	naturalised from Europe by 1600
Nov 2019	Wood Anemone	Anemone nemorosa	50 rhizomes	Mar-May	White	below entrance	buttercup family
Early 2020	various species to be planted "in the green", possibly including
	Wild garlic or Ramsons	Allium ursinum		Apr-May	White		leaves edible – mild taste
	Common Primrose	Primula vulgaris
	Common Snowdrop	Galanthus nivalis					most widespread snowdrop
	Sweet violet	Viola odorata		Feb-May	Purple		open shade, moist, rich soil
	Common dog violet	Viola riviniana		Mar-Jun	Purple		scentless; paler than odorata
	Lesser celandine	Ranunculus ficaria
	Common foxglove	Digitalis purpurea
2020	native wildflower seed					suitable spots in whole area of Wood
	Welsh daffodil	Narcissus obvallaris

